- Waste is a tax on the whole people. - Albert W. Atwood
- Man has been endowed with reason, with the power to create, so that he can add to what he's been given. But up to now he hasn't been a creator, only a destroyer. Forests keep disappearing, rivers dry up, wild life's become extinct, the climate's ruined and the land grows poorer and uglier every day. - Anton Chekhov
- ...most of the damage we cause to the planet is the result of our own ignorance. - Yvon Chouinard
- A margin of life is developed by Nature for all living things - including man. All life forms obey Nature's demands - except man, who has found ways of ignoring them. - Eugene M. Poirot
- For the first time in the history of the world, every human being is now subjected to contact with dangerous chemicals, from the moment of conception until death. - Rachel Carson
- The global environment crisis is, as we say in Tennessee, real as rain, and I cannot stand the thought of leaving my children with a degraded earth and a diminished future. - Al Gore
- Contrary to the ecologists, nature does not stand still and does not maintain the kind of equilibrium that guarantees the survival of any particular species - least of all the survival of her greatest and most fragile product: man. - Ayn Rand
- In looking at waste as an entirely modern, man-made idea, I stopped viewing garbage as garbage and instead slowly started to see it as a commodity. - Tom Szaky
- A way of life that ever more rapidly depletes the power of the Earth to sustain it and piles up ever more insoluble problems for each succeeding generation can only be called violent. - E. F. Schumacher

Appreciating Nature and the Environment Quotes

What good is taking about Nature if we don't take the time to appreciate the environment? Quotes like these are just a simple reminder of why it all matters.

- I go to nature to be soothed and healed, and to have my senses put in order. - John Burroughs
- There is nothing in which the birds differ more from man than the way in which they can build and yet leave a landscape as it was before. - Robert Lyn
- It appears to be a law that you cannot have a deep sympathy with both man and nature. - Henry David Thoreau
- Earth and sky, woods and fields, lakes and rivers, the mountain and the sea, are excellent schoolmasters, and teach some of us more than we can never learn from books. - John Lubbock
- The old Lakota was wise. He knew that man's heart away from nature becomes hard; he knew that lack of respect for growing, living things soon led to lack of respect for humans too. - Chief Luther Standing Bear
- Every creature is better alive than dead, men and moose and pine trees, and he who understands it aright will rather preserve its life than destroy it. - Henry David Thoreau
- Nature provides a free lunch, but only if we control our appetites. - William Ruckelshaus
- That each day I may walk unceasingly on the banks of my water, that my soul may repose on the branches of the trees which I planted. - Egyptian tomb inscription

Spirituality, Religion and the Environment Quotes

These environment quotes have been taken from the article Religion and the Environment. They tie numerous religions to their environmental messages, despite ideas to the contrary.

- In all matters moderation is desirable. If a thing is carried to excess, it will prove a source of evil. - Baha'ullah, Tablets of Baha'ullah, p. 69
- Aware of the suffering caused by the destruction of life, I undertake to cultivate compassion and learn ways to protect the lives of people, animals, plants, and minerals. - Thich Nhat Hanh, Buddhist monk
- But ask the animals, and they will teach you; or birds of the air and they will tell you; or speak to the earth and it will teach you; or let the fish of the sea inform you. Which of all these does not know that the hand of the lord has done this. In His hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind. - Job 12:7-10
- Let the states of equilibrium and harmony exist in perfection, and a happy order will prevail throughout heaven and earth, and all things will be nourished and flourish. - Confucius
- Everything in the universe belongs to the Lord. Therefore take only what you need, that is set aside for you. Do not take anything else, for you know to whom it belongs. - Isa Upanishad

- Devote thyself single-mindedly to the Faith, and thus follow the nature designed by Allah, the nature according to which He has fashioned mankind. There is no altering the creation of Allah. - Quran 30:30
- Ahimsa or nonviolence is not only non-killing, it also means that one's attitude must be of maitri (amity) and peace. The real meaning of ahimsa is maitri. There are thought to be countless jivas, life or life forms, that populate the earth, air, water and are present all around us. How are we to behave towards these? With maitri. - Jitubhai Shah
- For in respect of the fate of man and the fate of beast, they have one and the same fate: as the one dies so dies the other; all share the same breath of life. - Kohelet [Ecclesiastes] 3:19
- Be charitable to all beings, love is the representative of God. - Ko-ji-ki, Hachiman Kasuga of the Shinto tradition
- Sikh tradition begins with the simple premise that all the universe is sacred and worthy of respect. Every bush, ant and tree is, in its own way, engaged in worship. - SikhNet.com
- He who knows the activities of Nature lives according to Nature. - Chuang Tzu, The Book of Chang Tzu
- Whoever teaches care for all these seven creations, does well and pleases the Bounteous Immortals; then his soul will never arrive at kinship with the Hostile Spirit. When he has cared for the creations, the care of these Bounteous Immortals is for him, and he must teach this to all mankind in the material world. - Shayasht ne Shayast 15:6
- God has cared for these trees, saved them from drought, disease, avalanches, and a thousand tempests and floods. But he cannot save them from fools. - John Muir
- Man must feel the earth to know himself and recognize his values...God made life simple. It is man who complicates it. - Charles A. Lindbergh
- Every time you admire something in nature, it's a prayer to the Creator. - Vernon Harper
- Little flower, but if I could understand, what you are, root and all in all, I should know what God and man is. - Tennyson
- Nature holds the key to our aesthetic, intellectual, cognitive and even spiritual satisfaction. - Dr. Edward O. Wilson
- Our only choice, whatever our dogma, is to protect the Earth. This is our common progress or our common ruin. There is nothing in between. - Barbra Ward
- Why should man expect his prayer for mercy to be heard by What is above him when he shows no mercy to what is under him? - Pierre Troubetzkoy

Society and the Environment Quotes

This collection is all about our cultural and social impact on the environment. Quotes on this topic tend not to be positive, as they are often commentary from strong opinions.

- Dear future generations: Please accept our apologies. We were rolling drunk on petroleum. - Kurt Vonnegut
- Only when the last tree has died and the last river been poisoned and the last fish been caught will we realise we cannot eat money. - Cree Indian Proverb
- Suburbia is where the developer bulldozes out the trees, then names the streets after them. - Bill Vaughn

- Man shapes himself through decisions that shape his environment. - Rene Dubos
- We shall require a substantially new manner of thinking if mankind is to survive. - Albert Einstein
- The good building is not one that hurts the landscape, but one which makes the landscape more beautiful than it was before the building was built. - Frank Lloyd Wright
- Man has lost the capacity to foresee and to forestall. He will end by destroying the earth. - Albert Schweitzer
- There can be no question about whether we should or should not transform our society in the direction of sustainability. - Alan AtKisson
- A thing is right when it tends to preserve the integrity, stability and beauty of the biotic community. It is wrong when it tends otherwise. - Aldo Leopold
- The control man has secured over nature has far outrun his control over himself. - Ernest Jones
- I have no doubt that we will be successful in harnessing the sun's energy...If sunbeams were weapons of war, we would have had solar energy centuries ago. - Sir George Porter
- Because we don't think about future generations, they will never forget us. - Henrik Tikkanen
- The sun, the moon and the stars would have disappeared long ago...had they happened to be within the reach of predatory human hands. - Havelock Ellis
- The future belongs to those who understand that doing more with less is compassionate, prosperous and enduring and thus more intelligent, even competitive. - Paul Hawken
- Your grandchildren will likely find it incredible - or even sinful - that you burned up a gallon of gasoline to fetch a pack of cigarettes! - Paul MacCready, Jr.
- You can tell how high a society is by how much of its garbage is recycled. - Tahanie
- We are seeing the birth of a new perspective of the world, where ecology and economics are two sides of the same coin. - Leif Johansson
- Earth provides enough to satisfy every man's need, but not every man's greed. - Mahatma Gandhi
- I think when sustainability begins to drive business practices instead of greed, we'll evolve as a species. - Tom Kay

- Modern society will find no solution to the ecological problem unless it takes a serious look at its lifestyle. - Pope John Paul II
- The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated. - Mahatma Gandhi
- If you really want to define civilization it should be a culture that doesn't destroy its environment. If you burn down the kitchen one day and expect to eat the next, it is not even intelligent, let alone civilized. - Sting
- The universe is not required to be in perfect harmony with human ambition. - Carl Sagan

- When the planes still swoop down and aerial spray a field in order to kill a predator insect with pesticides, we are in the Dark Ages of commerce. - Paul Hawken
- Economic advance is not the same thing as human progress. - John Clapham

Other Whole Living and Not-Quite-Environment Quotes

Some of the following not-quite-environment quotes probably don't sound like they apply to this page. They are either quotes found throughout the website, in various articles or they are just some of my favorite quotes and resonate with me within the sustainable movement.

- Let food be your medicine and medicine be your food. - Hippocrates
- The worth of a book is to be measured by what you can carry away from it. - James Bryce
- As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them. - John Fitzgerald Kennedy
