

Maria Aurora (Maya) C. Bernardo, PhD

Maya has worked in higher education for over 26 years, as lecturer, researcher and higher education manager in the Philippines, Malaysia, Australia and New Zealand. She has a PhD in Educational Leadership, Masters in Business Administration, Bachelors in Commerce, and a Postgraduate Teaching Certificate. She has also finished a Diploma in Religious Studies, Theology Stream and a Certificate in Online Delivery and Designing. She is currently taking a Masters in Higher Education from the University of Otago. She has devoted most of her career in the study of leadership and developing leaders for schools and not-for-profit-organisations. Maya is a recipient of the Australian Leadership Award Fellowship in 2008 and was conferred Honorary Fellow for the Australian Catholic University from 2010-2018, where she's done research and published under the Institute for Advancing Community Engagement in areas of education, leadership and community engagement (link to her publications with Google Scholar).